Portland, Oregon.

Dear Mr [sic] Harvey:

Your letter of April 4th,telling [sic] me about your mother's collection,has [sic] been received. I regret to say that because of the depression and because the museum collection more than fills the building,I [sic] am not adding to it.

Thanking you for the offer and I am regretting that I am not in the market for beautiful things.

Sincerely yours,

Gertrude Bass Warner
