My dear Bertule,

This is only a short note to tell you that I am expecting to leave tomorrow evening on my journey to visit you. According to schedule I should be in Vancouver a week from this morning. My address there will be % M^{rs} John Clyne 3738 Angus Drive, but I shall not expect any letter from you unless something unusual arises.

I have sent a suit-case to you by Railway Express and have also sent a parcel of books by post.
Possibly you may receive these before my arrival,

I am looking forward with keenness to seeing you and Mabel very soon. With love to you,

An Ever

John
