My dear Mrs. Warner:

I am in receipt of your letter of December 13th. with [sic] reference to the fresco which we have discussed in our correspondence. I shall be very pleased to set aside the fresco and hold it [sic] for you, without [sic] obligation on your part, until [sic] you come to San Francisco.

For your information I may say that the retail price of the fresco of this size is $1250.00. I have made a price to museums of $750.00, and you of course will be entitled to that price in case you desire the fresco.

I shall observe your request not to mention the possibility of your coming to San Francisco at this time.

With best wishes for the holidays, in which Mrs. Hart joins me, I am

Ever sincerely yours,
Henry H. Hart

P.S. You may be interested to know that since I wrote you last the University of California has acquired another of the frescoes for its museum.
