

April 6th, 1933.

Mr. H. C. Harvey
3526 N. E. 22nd Ave.
Portland, Oregon.

Dear Mr Harvey:

Your letter of April 4th, telling me about your mother's collection, has been received. I regret to say that because of the depression and because the museum collection more than fills the building, I am not adding to it.

Thanking you for the offer and I am regretting that I am not in the market for beautiful things.

Sincerely yours,

Gertrude Bass Warner.

COPY

April 24th, 1933.

Mr. H. C. Harvey
3328 N. E. 22nd Ave.
Portland, Oregon.

Dear Mr. Harvey:

Your letter of April 24th, telling me about your mother's collection, has been received. I regret to say that because of the depression and because the museum collection more than fills the building, I am not adding to it.

Thanking you for the offer and I am regretting that I am not in the market for beautiful things.

Sincerely yours,

Gertrude Bass Warner.

COPY

