My dear Gertrude,

This is only a short note to tell you that I am expecting to leave tomorrow evening on my journey to visit you. According to schedule, I should be in Vancouver a week from this morning. My address there will be c/o Mr. John Clyne, 3738 Angus Drive, but I shall not expect an letter from you unless something unusual arises.

I have sent a suit-case to you by Railway Express and have also sent a parcel of books by post. Possibly you may receive these before y arrival.

I am looking forward with keenness to seeing you and [Michael] very soon. With love to you,

As ever
John
