Copy of letter to Gen. Munthe

Wednesday, Nov. 19th 1930.

My dear Friend,

Here I am, back at Eugene ready to go to work—the new building is nearly ready, all but its front door & some varnish on the floors. As soon as these are finished, we expect to starting moving our things. It is a fine building—the rooms are lighted by electricity, instead of by the day light in order to keep our textiles, upon which the lovely paintings are all painted from fading—I am sure you will admire it when you come to see us.

As the gift of the collection to the university has to be carried out according to law, I am collecting all the receipts of the things I have purchased. I find that it is necessary to have a receipt—from Mr. Albert—for the things shipped in his name.

I am enclosing a typed statement for him to sign & I am asking you, my dear friend, to see that he signs it, dates it, and you, or some other adult foreigner also sign it as a witness—because the University requires receipts for everything—and quite properly. When it is finished, please return it to me as quickly as possible—as my report will be waiting for it.

This is only a business letter, I will write again soon and then we will talk about our beloved Christian Science. With all good wishes, for all good to you, dear Friend.

Faithfully yours
G.B.W.
