

April 24th,1944

My dear John:

I have reservations on the trains for New York and I expect to arrive there on Wednesday, May 10th. I have always stayed at the Hotel Roosevelt, 45th at Madison Avenue and am writing today for reservations.

After I arrive,I [sic] shall get in touch with you and we can make plans for your trip to Oregon. I am looking forward with much pleasure to seeing and visiting with you and Mary.

Sincerely,

Gertrude Bass Warner
